

Important Questions to Consider

Please consider these questions carefully and prayerfully as you consider making public profession of your faith in the near future.

MOST IMPORTANT: Who is Jesus Christ to you? What does your relationship with him look like?

- Is there evidence in your life of growing in grace and the knowledge of Christ?
- Although your feelings may fluctuate, do you have a lasting desire to obey God and his Word in your life?
- Do you have an increasing awareness of the sinfulness of your own heart?
- Do you hate your sin? Do you seek to oppose the corruption and sin that you find within yourself wherever it may be found?
- Do you hold a high view of the Holy Scriptures? Do you have a living desire to read and study the Word of God? Are the Scriptures your never failing source of guidance and consolation? Are they the rule of your life?
- Do you love the people of God, the church, and do you prove your love by your support of God's people, in attendance, in attitude, in activity, with your finances?
- Do you habitually seek to glorify God by all means and in every matter and manner of your life?
- Do you pray for the will of God to be accomplished in your life and submit yourself to the providential hand of God even though it may be through hard times?
- Do you have a genuine sense of gratitude for the goodness and love of God? Is the main desire of your heart to live for Christ? And is the strongest motive for desiring to leave this life to be with Christ?
